Previously published in the anthology If Ever I Would Leave You

For nineteen years, Anna has been plagued by dreams of lives lived only in legend. Finally free from the family that believed her hopeless and worthless, she's ready to start her life over—alone.

When Anna meets an enigmatic stranger claiming to be the legendary wizard Merlin, she is forced to question the very reality she's struggled to accept. With the mythic figures from her dreams intruding on her waking life, Anna learns that she's been reborn to fight an ancient evil alongside King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table.

Caught in an ages old conflict, Anna is the key to stopping a dark magic that will destroy the world—and Merlin wants to make sure that this time, Anna isn't alone.

Content Warning: This book contains mentions and depictions of self-harm and illicit drug use.
