Just when Cooper Reynolds and Lou Whittaker think they've weathered the worst of their trials, they come face to face with the most dangerous, clever villain they've ever experienced. One Wyatt brother was bad enough, but now that Archer has called on his brother Christopher for help keeping Lou and Cooper apart, the young couple is about to learn what real trouble looks like. Christopher has come home determined to get Lou away from Cooper once and for all, and he isn't afraid who he hurts or what bridges he burns to get the job done. With Cooper's time running out and Lou struggling to control her growing powers, the last thing they need is more conflict. Too bad things are never as easy as they hope. With a mysterious pair of FBI investigators in town and the clock ticking, Cooper and Lou need to learn to work together before they're torn apart forever.
