Two lonely hearts walk into a bar...

Love is not only not for Seraphina Callas, it's possibly the most toxic substance on the planet. Dumped & publicly humiliated by her ex finance, she takes refuge in the anonymity of a big city. Yes, it's for her college roommate's wedding, but life's full of little ironies.

Colin Causwell doesn't believe in love, at least not for him. In his experience, women only want him for his money & title. And while the attention can be quite entertaining, the last thing he wants is to find a wife. Especially if all she wants is his wallet & lineage.

A chance encounter at a bar leads to more than either of them bargained for, & it only gets more complicated when they're in the same wedding. Will two people who think there's no such thing as love find their fairytale ending? Or will their mutual distrust of their feelings prove them right?

Being clumsy isn't the only reason to fall.
