Part One - Old Jim James C. Lewis

Long before the U.S. Civil War ended in 1865, the system of slavery existed in the South for close to 243 years.

Many black families were torn apart and disrupted by the unfair and cruel ‘way things were’.

In the story of “Old Jim”, we see the struggles one man goes through while he attempts to keep his family together despite the everyday outrages put upon him in his life of bondage.

Jim comes to grips with his plight by always staying true to his wife and children and in the process, realizes his faith brings him to a peaceful place beyond his earthly struggles.

This is a story of two families; one white and one black; one powerful and one poor.

Their lives are intertwined with passion, deceit and eventually, redemption.

“Old Jim” delivers a true understanding of the historical and emotional plight thousands of unnamed slaves were in from 1800 to 1865.
