A freelance photographer named Jessica often photographs married couples for a living. She is planning on being one herself; her fiancé Tom has proposed to her and they intend to marry in six months. However,

Jessica finds herself stressed about the wedding. She becomes even more stressed after she meets her fiancé's brother, Derek, who is a bartender at a nightclub. Jessica recalls one night before she met Tom when she and Derek met and had a one-night-stand. Overwhelmed by her attraction to Derek, and the fact that Tom works nights for his pediatrics job,

Jessica finds herself in a dramatic love situation against her natural desires and her moral values. She has to pick either Derek, who is sexy and spontaneous, or Tom, who is kind but dull. In her sticky yet erotic situation, she finds herself trying to hide her infidelity from Tom yet refrain from leading him on
