This book addresses a problem that is damaging, devastating, if not killing our children. It is an international plague. There is no cure. It has been around since the beginning of man. Approximately 90% of the children from the fourth grade to the eighth grade are affected by it. Everyone has been touched by this problem. There is nothing we can do to stop it, but we can prepare our children to deal with it. Bullying: A Biblical Solution is a walk to prepare our families to deal with this pandemic. This book provides a biblical process for dealing with this blight on humanity. The answers you glean will surprise you. "There is a time for everything". With the recent tragedies, murders and suicides relating to bullying and its effects, the need to offer a biblical view and a personal solution is urgent as well as necessary. I say urgent, because there is an unprecedented opportunity right now; an opportunity to reach the world and show that the bible has the answer to all of the problems and trials this life brings. I say necessary because many Christians have deep-seated questions and concerns about whether Christianity permits, let alone condones the practice of self defense or should just turn the other cheek. Bullying: A Biblical Solution answers these questions and seizes the opportunity to harvest this immense field.
