A sizzling, contemporary romance...

Former Marine Scott O'Callaghan got into a fair amount of trouble as a teenager, but now he's grown and runs a respectable auto body shop. After eight years in the military, he's left his troublemaking past behind him. Unfortunately for him, the sheriff of his town has it out for him no matter how much he's cleaned up his act.

When he's accused of a crime he didn't commit, no one is more surprised than him when straight laced Michaela Miller provides him with an alibi. An alibi that's a complete lie. Determined to find out why his sexy next door neighbor helped him out, he puts himself in danger of losing something he'd never considered. His heart.
