The Valley is a place populated with the eccentric and paranoid. In a continuous series of unfortunate misunderstandings, mixed communication and tomfoolery, Death Valley will have you smiling and laughing out loud. Just when Cuthbert thinks life is becoming dull it turns out he's botched up burying people. Now he's being investigated just as an orchestra rolls into town. As always plans go awry, disasters abound, and a stranger with a horse-drawn hearse is plotting for plots of the dead. This satirical installment of the Cuthbert series continues to entertain in endless silliness, the characters endearing, and your funny bone will be honed once again by Patrick Barrett's special brand of humour.
