Devil's Breath Sebastian Chase

"Brilliant - Very well thought out characters who you come to really believe in. Will be on the look out for more from this author." Amazon UK Some believe that those who commit horrific acts of terror are possessed by the Devil. Maybe they're right. When a malevolent spirit possesses a dying man, a terrorist is born. Its target? Every person in the United States. With the aid of a local cult awaiting the spirit's return, a sinister plot unfolds to poison the country's food chain with Devil's Breath; a very real and insidious drug used for centuries to turn people into zombie-like puppets. But first, they want to test it on a small town in Georgia. Former Army Ranger, Sheriff Ron Dalton, thought he had left the nightmares in Afghanistan behind, but now he finds himself leading a small group against an evil far worse than war. Isolated from civilization by the cult, the few locals must not only save their friends and family, but also prevent the terrorists from going nationwide. If they fail, millions will die.
