Sonya, a succubus, struggles with her affliction. She can have any man she wants, until she screws them to death. That's why she's tried a girlfriend on for size, but a girl's still got to eat.

The trail of bodies have led Detective Anderson to Seattle. He's determined to find hard evidence and put Sonya away for good. Normally a man would be no match for a succubus, yet Sonya's powers seem to have no effect on the determined detective.

Dubbed the "Black Widow," Sonya must evade the law until she can find a way to overcome her curse, which means finding the Blood Stone, the relic that killed her mother.
