Greenberg's Guide to Lionel Ho Trains, Vol. 2: 1974-1977 George J. Horan

Here's the book that picks up where the revised and expanded Volume I (1957-1966) left off. This second volume unravels the complexities of identifying HO produced by five different manufacturers in seven countries during 1974- 1977, describes the new road names, paint schemes, detailing, and motive features, provides values and practical advice about the collectability of the almost 300 HO items of the MPC era - including trends in the marketplace and includes instruction and catalog sheets, useful parts lists, and full coverage of items produced for the Canadian market. Illustrated with 140 color and black and white photographs, drawings and documents. 112 pages.
