It's a sight so "normal' that it almost fails to shock anymore; a westerner in an orange jumpsuit being paraded in front of a camera by ISIS. Bret Lee, an American college professor kidnapped in China and smuggled to Syria, finds himself in that perilous predicament as a looming prelude to being either sold for $10 million or beheaded by a twisted ideology. Could he turn the tables on his captors and become a spy who brings ISIS down? If you love espionage thrillers, especially one laced with geopolitics, the CIA, a sexy female Kurdish warrior, a bloody gunfight in the Iraqi desert, and super-secret Tweets, don't miss this book.
