Most people today end up with too much month and not enough money. Many college graduates, senior citizens and downsized executives are searching for ways to increase or supplement their income. There are very few jobs around that will pay sufficient to cover needs, let alone wants. Jobs that used to be available for unskilled workers or teenagers are now being taken by those who are under-employed. The unemployment figures are discouraging no matter how much motivation, skill, and talent you have. You started selling old stuff on Craigslist and donating plasma, and you're still not covering expenses. So what are you to do? Create A Job Author Judy H. Wright and a group of interns were having a break at Artichoke Press when they shared the difficulty of finding work to pay their expenses. A brainstorming session tuned into a project, which turned into interviews, which morphed into the book you are reading right now! The young interns learned that no matter who signs the paycheck, the business you work for is always you. The more sources of income and options you have, the happier you will be.
