Assume the Position Kenny Walters

This book contains eight short stories from the author of Bend Over, Girl and Eight of the Best. The majority of these stories depict punishments in British and American schools, while the others are set in a judge's home in rural America, a manor house in England, and the office of a professional disciplinarian in London.

Judged and Punished

A judge's daughter is caught drinking alcohol with three of her friends, with predictable consequences.

Parking Lot Punishment

A girl changes schools when her parents move from California to North Carolina and finds the style of discipline at her new school very different.

The Head Girl's Dilemma

Even head girls get themselves into trouble sometimes, but when this head girl's punishment is considered too lenient by her peers it leads to conflict among the prefects.

Old Tom

The daughter of the lady of the house is a spoilt brat, but at last she gets her comeuppance.

A Personal Experience

A story told in the second person describes the caning of a girl by her headmistress in intimate detail.

A Piece of Mud

Retaliation against a schoolmate—who happens to be a prefect—lands a sixth-form girl in serious trouble.

A Paddling

Rebecca expects to face in-school-suspension for a series of violations of school rules, but it turns out her favorite teacher has a different punishment in mind.

Unit 52

A woman visits a disciplinarian after narrowly avoiding a brush with the law.

Publisher's Note: While many of the stories in this book share a school setting, it is made clear in all of them that the characters are over the age of eighteen.
