Don't be afraid to be Yourself: Damn what others may say or think Marlow Jermaine Martin

I understand the pain of others, who have to hide their true identity just so they can be accepted by others. I also understand how frustrating it can be not able to express your feelings, just so others won't feel threaten, or uncomfortable. I was one of those people who were victimized because I wasn't being true to myself. I learned to not worry about what others may think of me. I learn to not care about the name callings. I continued to be who I am until I earned the respects of others. So I created this book in the honor of those whose going through what I've gone through. In this book I try to encourage others to just be who they are, rather you're gay, bi, or straight. We all are human beings and we shouldn't have to go through life, feeling some type way. I hold no punches, nor beat behind a bush. In this booklet I tell it like it is. The way it should be shared, but keep in mind, I'm not coming to you as friend, nor am I'm looking to get views. I'm here to let you know to just be yourself, and care less about what other may say or think about you.
