Can best friends make it as anything more than just friends?

Augusta and Jake have been friends for as long as they can remember but it's been a while since they've seen each other. Neither knew that they other would turn out so beautiful!

Augusta falls for Jake the moment they reconnect, and she knows that he should be off limits, but she can't help how her heart feels. When Jake asks her to a ball, she wonders if it'll be just this one night or will Jake be her prince charming?

Jake comes from a well off family and has more women throwing themselves at his feet that he can count. He's had enough of the ditzy socialites and has set his eyes on beautiful Augusta Walker. But no one's sure if he can change his playboy ways and follow his heart. Will he mess up the best thing he's got because he's scared to lose his best friend?

Either way, they'll have their one night at the ball...
