A Casebook on Contract: Second Edition Andrew Burrows

This is the second revised edition of Professor Andrews Burrows' casebook, offering undergraduate law students an ideal way to discover and understand contract law through reading highlights from leading UK cases. It has been brought up to date, incorporating extracts from a number of cases decided since 2007. Designed to be used in conjunction with a contract law textbook, it covers the undergraduate contract law course in a series of clearly presented and carefully structured chapters. The author provides an expert introduction to each topic, and his succinct notes and questions guide students to a proper understanding of the cases. The relevant statutes are also set out along with a principled analysis of them. In addition to cross-references to further discussion, an innovative feature is the summary of leading academic articles in each chapter. The book is designed not to overwhelm students by its length, but covers all aspects of the law of contract most commonly found in the undergraduate curriculum.
