Alaina Katiska Stephens

Alaina has a special task she has to complete before receiving her wings. She has to spend time on earth to help out children that are going through something. She teaches them how to pray, and she gives them hope. She visits a girl with leukemia and a boy whose mom lost her job. This is a book about what children actually may encounter in life. It teaches them how to pray and believe that everything will be just fine. It teaches children how to have a relationship with God.
