L'Albania in Furgon: On the road nel Paese delle Aquile (Italian Edition) Francesca Mezza

Nell'estate del 2014 Francesca, una giovane donna italiana, e Julian, un cittadino albanese emigrato in Italia negli anni '90, percorrono l'Albania da nord a sud a bordo di minibus locali (furgon). Il furgon, autentico simbolo del viaggio nomade e dell'anima balcanica, è la maniera più economica e divertente di spostarsi. Questo modo insolito e avventuroso di viaggiare consentirà ai due amici di conoscere molte persone, ascoltando storie e racconti di vita di ogni genere. In particolar modo, permetterà a Francesca di penetrare la cultura albanese, cogliendone gli aspetti più autentici e catapulterà il lettore in un Paese in profonda trasformazione. Attraversando il Paese delle Aquile da nord a sud, il libro racconta l'Albania e gli albanesi. Foreste incontaminate, antichi villaggi ottomani, laghi spettacolari e bianche spiagge dal mare turchese. Un affresco geografico e sociale di un Paese affascinante, contraddittorio e ancora poco conosciuto. L'Albania, ultimo stato europeo ad essere uscito dal regime comunista, è considerata infatti una delle nuove mete turistiche. Il volume offre a coloro che intendono visitare questo splendido Paese spunti interessanti per un viaggio "on the road". Una miniguia, in appendice, consiglia inoltre esperienze e luoghi da non perdere.
