The Taylor's Girls series continues as Taylor and Laura Morgan are at the top of their careers. He's a long-standing favorite on Broadway and she's an acclaimed writer. Together they are parents to three daughters, grandparents to one. With their youngest child, Annie, ready to leave the nest, they are looking forward to a new chapter in their lives and time for themselves. Instead, they are faced with their greatest challenge when Laura is offered the writing assignment of a lifetime in unsettled Bosnia - an assignment with unexpected consequences.
