Scientific Evidence that the Biblical Flood and the Ice Epoch Were Concurrent Less Than 5000 Years Ago James L. Wilson

The Biblical flood was global in scope. There is ample evidence all around our globe that supports a global flood and two major shifts of the earth's axis of rotation. Forty (40) different cultures on six (6) continents have accounts and evidence of a global flood. The ice age began abruptly and was caused by the onslaught of 12 million cubic miles of ice descending on the earth's magnetic poles from the tail of a comet, where previously existed a "greenhouse" type of jungle climate. Scientific evidence led the Scripps Institute of Oceanography and Dr. John Lebreque of Columbia University to conclude that "mass extinction on earth occurred abruptly in the sea and on land at the same time due to a massive comet shower." Also, he stated that the extinction occurred at the same time that earth's magnetic poles were reversed.
