Chain Agent Keon Coates

When Keon Coates was a young man on the verge of entering the "real world" after high school, his plans had nothing to do with the military. With a scholarship to Georgia Southern University and plans of dorm life in his head, he visited a US Navy recruiter simply to appease his best friend's wishes-an indifferent move that ultimately changed his life's course forever. This is the wisdom-infused tale of how a young, modern American found his calling in the most unlikely of places, and in doing so, earned the respect, strength, and wizened philosophy of the few who take the sacred oath and commit "to excellence and the fair treatment of all."
