Dominate the Zone (Hockey BDSM CBT M/M Romance) Alex Petersen

Ryan is a professional dom specializing in CBT trying to establish himself in the Chicago area after a successful career in San Francisco. Danny is the captain of Chicago's NHL team, looking for a way to deal with the anxiety and stress of trying to win a Stanley Cup. Neither of them expects to recognize the other.

This book contains graphic portrayals of BDSM and CBT.

"Ryan lets himself smile when Danny freezes halfway down the stairs and draws a sharp breath, hands gripping the banister. It helps get rid of the weirdness. Danny is a client, he's a guy who likes to be hurt and wants to see what Ryan has to offer. That's not new or intimidating, just exciting as hell.

"This is my workspace," Ryan says, reminding Danny that he's there. Danny shakes himself out of his stupor, hurrying down the steps to cover his initial reaction.

Ryan doesn't rush him.

Once they're both all the way down Ryan wanders over to the large bed in the center of the room - white sheets, freshly laundered - and sits down, leaning back on his hands. Danny stays still, devouring the room with his eyes. His glance passes absently over the hooks in the floor and ceiling.

"Most of the tools I work with are in there," Ryan says, pointing to a giant chest of drawers against the far wall. "You can look around if you want, I'm here if you have questions." Danny nods at him, still looking a little dazed. His eyes pause on the array of whips and paddles decorating the walls.

It's not the right time to go into the details of what Ryan does and doesn't do for money, but he can't let Danny make the wrong assumptions. "Your friend probably told you that I specialize in CBT," Ryan says as Danny starts opening drawers. "Cock-and-balls torture."

Danny nods, pulling out items and examining them methodically before moving on to the next drawer. "How much does it hurt?" He doesn't look at Ryan, just continues to pull out implements - sounding rods, currently - and turn them over in his hands.

"A lot," Ryan says. "Though it depends on what you're used to."

"I used to have a friend who did stuff for me," Danny says, still looking away. He sounds calmer, more in control, which is weird, considering Ryan's pretty sure he doesn't know what half the stuff he's looked at is for. "Belts, paddles, that sort of thing." His eyes finally meet Ryan's. "Can you make this hurt more?"

That focused stare, full of resolve, Ryan remembers it like a punch to the gut. Fuck. Danny was a kid then, of course, didn't have even a third of the muscle he has now. But Ryan remembers him, low to the ice, impossible to knock off the puck, always a step ahead with his plays. Shit. "Yeah," he manages to breathe out. "I can make it hurt a lot more."
