How we beat the bank !: A factual real life story detailing how we kept our house, avoided foreclosure and reduced our mortgage by 43%. Kevin Shortsale

This is a true life story with absolutely nothing fabricated or exaggerated. However the names of all the people and the financial institutions have been changed so as to retain anonymity. My wife and I were able to retain our home without making a mortgage or property tax payment for exactly four years. We also were able to keep our house and reduce our monthly payment by 43%. This is a must read for anyone who is experiencing financial hardship and fighting to keep their home. This work is also applicable in Academia, for students studying American History or the recent financial crisis and near collapse of the banking system. US Copyright registration # TX-008101362.
