Pacto Sinistro (Portuguese Edition) Patricia Highsmith

In Pacto sinistro (Sinister Pact), the writer plunges in the psychological drama of the characters and establishes a frame whose suspense appears little by little and leads us to moments of unbearable climax and suffocation. Two strangers are in a journey by train and, in the middle of a long conversation, plan two murders. Nobody ever will unravel the crimes, because no one knows that they met by a happy coincidence. The two arrange never to meet again. The plan seems perfect but, dominated by a malignant force, one partner betrays the other.
