Life is filled with mysteries and this book takes you on a journey revealing them. The thoughts never faded but were never spoken until now. Hidden feelings of past and present loves. Broken bridges of promises, love, and trust that never came to pass. The house on a hill was a sanctuary with dreams of new beginnings and a curse as the loves faded. We know that life has many seasons. When we meet someone and fall in love, we hope that they have come forever. The heartache begins when they have come into our lives for just a season. You never forget them, you just catalogue the thought of them into your memory.
