The Red Tent Movement: A Historical Perspective Isadora Leidenfrost, ALisa Starkweather
The Red Tent has a history, but what is it? Was there a Red Tent in the bible? There's a Red Tent movement, where? Learn the surprising history of the Red Tent in book "The Red Tent Movement: A Historical Perspective" by Isadora Gabrielle Leidenfrost, PhD and ALisa Starkweather. There are thousands of women across the globe who are bringing forth their gifts as Red Tent leaders in their communities, but where did this tradition come from? "The Red Tent" was novel by Anita Diamant, published in 1997 that gave us a story of women who come together in a menstrual hut, known as the Red Tent. The Red Tent movement has a seventeen-year history, but connects to thousands of years of tradition of women honoring women and creating a world that embraces honesty, and respects for others, our daughters, and ourselves. We are in a new era of history. The healing of our planet is the priority of many committed visionaries. We understand that we are on a precipice and by building a woman-honoring culture we can create a huge paradigm shift one Red Tent at a time.
