Working on the notorious Mitchell Estate, housing officer Josie Mellor faces challenges every day, but not nearly as many as those of her tenants.

Kelly Winterton is scared and alone after her partner has been jailed. A victim of domestic abuse, Charlotte Hatfield has fled from her violent partner four times already. He'll probably kill her if he finds her this time. Disowned by her family, someone is taking advantage of Amy Cartwright's vulnerability. Who can she turn to for support?

But Josie has her own problems to deal with, too. As her home life deteriorates and she struggles to escape her controlling husband, she realises only a thin line separates her from the people she's trying to help.

Behind Closed Doors is the second book in The Estate Series, which begins with Somewhere to Hide, but it can be enjoyed as a standalone audiobook.
