Lifting the Veil on the Lost Continent of Mu, Motherland of Men Jack Churchward

In the 1920s, James Churchward wrote a series of ground breaking books about the lost continent of Lemuria which he called the land of Mu. He obtained the information by living with monks and translating unknown manuscripts. When the books were published, he was met with derision and scepticism by the scientists of the day. Over the years since the original writings, his books have become classics and we now know he found authentic and credible information. The books were written before their time. People today consider Churchward a pioneer in this field. Now his great-grandson, Jack Churchward, has resurrected this valuable work and added his own research.
