STANDALONE CONTEMPORARY ROMANCE

*I let him steal my breath and I want to give him my heart too.
But it's complicated.*

Internet dating and Callie St James do not go together.

25.

Desperate for sex.

Earns shit money waitressing while desperately trying to get a publishing deal.

Only does yoga to keep core muscles strong—trust me, guys thank me.

Reads too much because gets no sex.

Did I mention desperate for sex?

She's about to give up on love when the guy she's been lusting after for a year breaks her three month sex drought.

Luke Hardy.

Mysterious, moody and all alpha, Luke is hiding a secret—one that Callie never saw coming.

The secret, however, is nothing compared to the discovery she makes about Luke's family when she starts a new job at the local paper. Callie finds herself caught between her morals and her desires. Whichever path she chooses, someone will lose. Is she ready to give up the man she's just found or will she go against everything she believes in so she can finally have the love she's always dreamt of?

This story contains all the panty-melting sexiness and alpha goodness that Nina Levine books are known for.
