Women Stop the Chase: Let God's Man Find You (Proverbs 18:22) Mary Gillam

Are you tired of being alone? Have you given up on God bringing the “right man” into your life? Before you answer, I invite you to read this book. God has not forgotten you. He has a plan and purpose for your life. He even has a plan for relationships that is rooted in His word. This book tackles the tough question, "Should Christian women pursue men in relationships?" Using Proverbs 18:22 as the reference, this book takes readers through the author's personal journey to understand God's divine plan for relationships. She shares lessons learned from her intense study and the results of a survey designed to gain other perspectives. The book incorporates biblical and real-life examples. Frank and thought-provoking questions are also used to reiterate key points and to help promote personal growth and development. On occasion, the author interjects humor to keep the reader engaged. This book will enable you to: -Stop the Chase and let God's man pursue you -Discover who “you” are in Christ -Understand God’s Plan for Relationships A genuine gold-mine, this book hits a “home run” in ministering to women who think that God has forgotten them. As a precious jewel in His eyes, you can rest assure that He is faithful. His promises are “yes” and “amen.”
