Lucas Hudson is kicking himself. After watching his brother Reece get a second chance with Synclair, now Lucas is looking for his own happy ending with Sara Wilmington. Three years ago Lucas's best friend Travis convinced him that Sara had willingly had sex with him. Even after it had come to light that Sara was drugged and assaulted by Travis, Lucas couldn't get past what happened. To make matters worse, Sara found out she was pregnant not long after. Now, after three years, Lucas is tired of living without the woman he loves. Deciding to no longer stand on the sidelines of his life, he makes a full court press for her. Sara has every right to be mad, when she needed him to accept the child that came out of that terrible night, he couldn't do it. Lucas may not deserve a second chance, but he's determined to get one. With the help of the Hudson clan and his new sister in law Synclair, Lucas plans to rope himself the angry, gun shy beauty, even if he has to hog tie her!

Sara Wilmington gave up on Lucas Hudson years ago. At least, she thought she had. Now that she was partnering with his brother's fiance in a restaurant, it seems Lucas is everywhere. Sara refuses to give Lucas the time of day; she has a son to raise, a business to run and the last thing she needs is the arrogant, Lucas Hudson trying to weaken her resolve with his stolen kisses. Sara knows that Lucas is relentless when he's going after something, now it looks like he has her in his sights. Her brain has no problem shutting him out, after all, he hurt her terribly, if only her heart and body would pay attention.
