A SUSPENSE THRILLER WITH AN ALMIGHTY TWIST IN THE TALE.

How can a whole family disappear into thin air? An empty house on the edge of town . . . a teddy bear abandoned . . . a half drunk glass of wine . . . the TV left on and all the computer equipment gone. Where have Hutchinson Kemp and his wife and two children gone?

Detective Rondeau is on the verge of cracking up as he pursues the trail of the film-maker and his family who have disappeared without a trace. Rondeau discovers disturbing evidence that big money and government might have something to do with the chilling crime but no one seems to believe him anymore. Ignoring his sceptical police colleagues, he puts his life at risk as he races to find the family in this twisting-turning crime thriller.

You'll be gripped from start to heart-stopping finish in this unputdownable thriller from international best-selling author T.J. Brearton.

If you like Jeffery Deaver, Linwood Barclay, Lisa Unger, Gillian Flynn, Rachel Abbott, or Mel Sherratt, you will enjoy this compelling new mystery novel.

The book is set in Upstate New York, an area the author brings to life with compelling detail based on his local knowledge.
