Pesach is coming and Raffi (and his Abba, Imma, and little sister) has lots to do. Remember Raffi? He's that lively, lovable youngster who lives in a 600-year old house in the Old City of Jerusalem. Raffi is big. He's five! He has all sorts of jobs to get done before Pesach and not enough minutes to do them in. But his parents are lucky to have him. How would they ever manage without Raffi? Let's load our camera with color film and scurry after Raffi as he does all the important things that important people do before Pesach. While we're at it, we'll see his great old house with three-foot-thick walls. And we'll see markets, bakeries, schools, free-food centers and many other places and people that make Jerusalem so exciting. Lead the way Raffi! We're right behind you!
