Macbeth: Modern and Original Editions William Shakespeare

"Why does it make me think of murder?"

When he meets three witches Macbeth finds his life turned upside down. This revered soldier will now do anything to be King...including killing his cousin, the current monarch, King Duncan.

With his wife's encouragement Macbeth sets out on a journey of deceit, lust and murder.

In this book Aaron McCarthy retells the story for a modern audience. The dialogue is updated but the meanings remain the same.

A "book-form" adaptation that removes the language barrier holding so many back from truly enjoying William Shakespeare's masterpiece.

"She leant up for a kiss he did not return."

Please Note: This eBook includes both Aaron McCarthy's "book-form" adaptation and a copy of William Shakespeare's original play.
