The Book of Rose Mrs. Sally D Houser

My Sister Rose was my cheerleader. She loved my story poems and always encouraged me to write. The day she left this world was the hardest day of my life. I was devastated and I didn't know how I would get through this life without her. She would come back to visit me and help me through the grief process. It would be scary, funny and exciting. Every day after her death I would write in my journal of all the signs and activities going on in my home. This book is compiled of all my journal entries. Some entries are short and some are longer and more detailed. All entries are true and they are entered by the date I wrote them. This is our story, our journey. I named it The Book of Rose, so family and friends can see how she came to help me heal. I hope the same healing for her friends and family that read our story. This is my first book and it's not perfect. But what is perfect in this world? You have to go to Heaven to find perfection. That's where my Sis is. I will see you again in Heaven. Love you Sis...
