Harbinger (Dawn of Eight) (Volume 1) Emme DeWitt

No matter where Noah goes, tragedy strikes. As a banshee, only Noah can see it coming, but it's all she can do to run away to lessen the damage her voice causes when she sings for the dead. Orphaned from birth, Noah has been trying to control her powers on her own with the help of her guardian Adele. But Noah's powers are more out of control than ever, and Adele is out of options. As the final condition of her parents' trust, Noah lands at Windermere Prep. All she has to do is keep a low profile until graduation. Easier said than done when one out of four students on campus haunts her in her dreamscape. With no where else to run, Noah is stuck trying to decode her own powers while surviving the hell of day to day school life. But within days of her arrival, one boy is dead, another awakens from a coma, and Noah is stuck as the only common link between the two. With a target painted on her back, Noah is desperate to clear her name. Something is afoot at Windermere. Can Noah learn to control her powers in time to escape persecution?
