Hymns of Heritage and Hope Advent Christian General Conference

[From the preface]: "From its beginnings in the mid-nineteenth century, the Advent Christian movement has been known for a vibrant and devout style of hymn singing with special focus on the soon return of Jesus Christ and the events surrounding that climatic moment." ... "An analysis of Hymns of Heritage and Hope reveals that 91 of the 738 selections (12.3%) have been written since 1985. Included are many new hymns as well as a good number of worship choruses (102). Some humns and choruses appear here for the first time in publication."
