This Special Edition highlights Mannatech, Inc with forewords by both it's founder Sam Caster and Executive Vice-President Al Bala. Traditional jobs are in jeopardy. Do you have a Plan C? Plan A may be the job you had that is now gone or the job you still have that doesn't offer the security or satisfaction you deserve. Plan B is the job you hope to find in a different company in the same or similar industry. But even decades of experience at the same job are no longer applicable to the rapidly transforming world. Are you caught in a Plan A-B rut? This book shows you how to create your own Plan C. About the Author Glenn Head, M.A., has degrees in Business Management and Educational Psychology from Texas A & M University, and over 30 years of experience as an entrepreneur. After leaving the Air Force as a Captain with a Meritorious Service Medal, he founded Instructional Communications, Inc., providing organizational development and training consulting to Fortune 500 companies for more than a decade. He is the author of the international award winning book, Training Cost Analysis: A Practical Guide. Glenn learned about network marketing from his wife Marian who began her network marketing business in 1995. Marian's success allowed him to see the advantages of leveraged, residual income. Today they both enjoy the rewards of leadership with their network marketing company and profession. As Dean of Networking University, which he cofounded in 2003, Glenn enjoys his role in fostering network marketers' personal, professional and business development. Glenn and Marian are co-authors of "VITAL Signs of a Healthy Business" published in The Ultimate Guide To Network Marketing: 37 Top Network Marketing Income-Earners Share Their Most Preciously Guarded Secrets To Building Extreme Wealth. Glenn's daily question is, "Am I organizing my life around what truly matters to me?"
