A young Marketing Associate has the chance meeting of her life when she runs into what appears to be a young prince visiting America. The prince has been sent to America to find the best marketing firm to introduce his country's resources and opportunities to America. Both the Prince and the Marketing Associate are driven by demanding rulers, each with their own personal agenda. Unaware of each other's hidden agenda, the two find themselves in common circumstances drawing them closer by the day. But one holds a deeper, more impacting secret that could send the newly formed relationship spiraling to a point of no return. As time runs out for the couple, they struggle to keep their heads together and focus. What was once thought to be a chance meeting turns out to be so much more.
